Recently, three major publications called upon Dr. Sands for his extensive teeth whitening knowledge.

In an August 2023 mindbodygreen piece (1), Dr. Sands discusses the potential benefits of in-office whitening – especially as opposed to certain over-the-counter products. Meanwhile, in a Men's Health (2) article, Dr. Sands warns patients who are allergic to peroxide to steer clear of teeth whitening strips that contain the ingredient. Finally, Dr. Sands is heavily featured in this StyleCaster (3) piece, wherein he endorses teeth whitening tricks such as oil pulling and brushing with baking soda.

For his own patients, Dr. Sands frequently recommends Zoom!® teeth whitening. This advanced aesthetic treatment, he states, has proven effective for many patients, allowing them to enjoy a much brighter smile after a relatively brief and simple process.
