Dr. Andrew Batsis, Husband! Dentist! Kiwanian! Santa Claus? by Katherine Batsis

In her debut book, Batsis paints a vivid portrait of her late husband, Dr. Andrew Batsis, who was not only a dedicated dentist and a fervent Kiwanian but also joyfully embraced a Santa Claus persona due to his striking resemblance to the jolly old elf. The memoir traverses through various aspects of Dr. Batsis' life, reflecting on his professional journey, community service, and personal anecdotes that celebrate his impact on those around him.

"Dr. Andrew Batsis, Husband! Dentist! Kiwanian! Santa Claus?" is structured in three parts: The Memorial Tribute, Personal Reflections Plus, and Kiwanis. It weaves together letters, recipes, and stories that highlight the blend of Greek and American cultures, showcasing how Dr. Batsis enriched the lives of many, from family and friends to patients and community members. His legacy culminated in receiving the Key of Honor from Key Club International, the highest accolade within the organization.

Katherine "Kathi" J Batsis, who has spent 25 years as an Educational Media Specialist in New Jersey and is active in various community service roles, penned this memoir to commemorate her husband's multifaceted life and enduring influence. Her book only chronicles the life of an admired man that served as an inspiration for active community engagement.
