New England Kitchens:

I am excited to announce a momentous achievement in VizConnect's journey as we reveal our strategic partnership with our acquisition of a 10% ownership stake in New England Kitchens.”

Temba Mahaka, CEO of VizConnect, Inc.

New England Kitchens (“NEK”) has provided white glove service for builders, home flippers, and homeowners for decades. A leader in offering a wide array of kitchen options at competitive prices, NEK was sold in late 2022. Under new ownership, the management Team includes one of Maine’s largest homebuilders and successful real estate developers.

Since acquiring ownership, this group has upgraded New England Kitchen’s office facilities, website, marketing promotional materials, and has hired a full-time sales professional while retaining New England Kitchen’s core staff. New England Kitchens is expected to continue to increase market share with not only its current organic clientele but expand its market share by bringing in new clients.

"We partnered with VizConnect for two fundamental reasons; First off because VizConnect can offer outstanding business resources in support of our continued business growth and secondly, we believe that owning VizConnect shares will prove to be a very valuable asset going forward as it executes upon its Strategic Business Roadmap – We believe in VizConnect's Vision.", stated Shannon Croteau, owner of New England Kitchens.
