The grand opening on April 20th will feature complimentary drinks and snacks, along with giveaways and entertainment.

"When we did our first fluid art experience at Hawaii Fluid Art, we knew that this is an experience worth sharing with our friends, family and our community. We love making beautiful art every day with our community and sharing this unique experience. Celebrations, be it Birthday parties, Anniversaries, Graduation or even a good old get-together, we love to make it extra special here at our Denton Hawaii Fluid Art studio," said the Patels.

"From the moment you walk into one of our studios, you will feel loved, supported, empowered and capable," added Ratcliff.

Classes and private events can now be booked online at <https://denton.hawaiifluidart.com>

Walk-ins are always welcome if no events or private parties are booked or call us anytime (972)802-0432 for any questions.
