You Go Girl: Meet Women Who Rock Real Estate

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, April 18, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Women Making Moves (& Money) In Real Estate. Both men and women invest in real estate. But honestly, women have certain “challenges” that men just don’t have to think about. (Men, you may have no clue what we’re referring to, but women know exactly.) So please join the Los Angeles County Real Estate Investors Association monthly meeting, Thursday night, May 9, 2024, 6:30 to 9:30 pm, where investors will learn how to confront these challenges and become a successful real estate investor.

Guest Speakers: This month LAC-REIA has a unique panel of four women who are kicking butt in Real Estate? These women have been in the trenches, confronted and conquered challenges, and know how to swing a hammer (though they’ve learned they don’t have to). And that’s what they will share with attendees. Their stories are as different as their personalities, but they all share two things in common: They are successful at what they do and they earn a good living doing it! (Men can attend too, but at their own risk.) During this panel discussion,
