Celebrate in Style with Wedding Works

Wedding Works will add professional finesse to the client experience, elevating the level of hospitality and service to match the breathtaking Art Factory aesthetic, design and decor.”

David Garsia

The Wedding Works team has decades of hospitality and catering expertise and most team members have already been involved with delivering over a hundred 5-star weddings at the Art Factory as Willow and Sage Caterers, so they know the Art Factory intimately and align perfectly with the commitment to delivering exceptional service and unforgettable events.

The mission of the Wedding Works team is to provide personal end-to-end client services from the date of booking through the day of the event; from macro global planning and design implementation to micro details like bathroom attendants stationed in each bathroom on event night, ensuring a holistically magnificent client experience.
