choices steps from each other in this charming historic district. Thus, it made sense to feature some of the more diverse restaurants during International Food Week to satisfy foodies and help others expand their horizons," said Lexie Boyd, Special Events Manager of the Historic Westport District.

A culinary adventure awaits at Westport's International Foods Week – the district where the locals go. Restaurant open times vary; dine-in reservations are recommended at Chewology and Chingu.

ABOUT WESTPORT

Founded as an independent town in 1833, Westport is both the most historic neighborhood and the original entertainment district in Kansas City, featuring more than 50 restaurants, 30 bars, 20 patios, and 30 shops. Its emphasis on local and authentic offerings is still evident today as it houses the region's largest concentration of original and locally owned businesses. Its historic, pedestrian-scaled buildings are "where the locals go" for tasty eateries, trendy boutiques, nightlife hot spots, and indulgent personal service enterprises. Westport is between 39th Street and 43rd Street to the north and south and between Main Street and Southwest Trafficway to the east and west.
