InkCycle Leaves the Ink and Toner Industry to Focus on New Business Activities

CORONA, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, April 19, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ACM Technologies,

This transition is more than just a transfer of business – it is an opportunity to extend our reach and demonstrate our commitment to excellence and innovation in the ink and toner industry,”

Ben Lin

Inc., a leading wholesale distributor of OEM and compatible ink and toner cartridges, is excited to announce the acquisition of Kansas-based InkCycle's customer base. This transition marks a significant milestone for ACM Technologies as it expands its market presence with its quality products and customer satisfaction in a rapidly evolving market.

InkCycle has decided to depart the ink and toner industry, transitioning its valued customer base to ACM Technologies to ensure its longstanding quality service and reliability continues.

ACM Technologies, with its extensive experience and presence in the ink and toner industry, is well-positioned to welcome InkCycle's customers. Known for its comprehensive product offerings, exceptional customer service, and efficient distribution capabilities, ACM Technologies is poised to ensure a seamless transition for InkCycle's clients. With four strategic locations across the United States, ACM Technologies guarantees delivery to most of the country with ground shipping in two days or less, ensuring timely and reliable delivery of products.

"We are excited to welcome InkCycle's customers to the ACM family. This transition is more than just a transfer of business – it is an opportunity to extend our reach and demonstrate our commitment to excellence and innovation in the ink and toner industry," said Ben Lin, president of ACM Technologies. "We are dedicated to making this transition as smooth as possible, ensuring no lapse of business. We look forward to offering the high-quality products and exceptional service we've provided for 35 years."

ACM Technologies assures all InkCycle customers will receive the same level of quality and service they have come to expect, with the added benefit of ACM Technology's extensive product range and distribution capabilities. ACM is committed to honoring existing agreements and working closely with each customer to meet their unique needs and preferences.

As the ink and toner industry continues to evolve, ACM Technologies remains at the forefront, dedicated to exploring innovative solutions and opportunities for growth. This acquisition is a testament to ACM's commitment to the industry and its vision for the future.
