

Premier appoints Corina Heizer as its new Vice President of Procurement

New role at the noted hospitality and multi-family residential design firm in response to remarkable growth

DALLAS, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, April 19, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Premier, an end-to-end architecture, design, procurement, project management, and development firm, is pleased to announce that Corina Heizer has been appointed as the firm's new Vice President of Procurement. With more than 15 years of interior design experience and 11 years of procurement expertise, Heizer will oversee the daily operations of the Procurement team, and will be responsible for managing the department's Procurement Associates.

A technical expert with previous experience working in architecture teams, interior design teams, as well as for hospitality ownership groups, Heizer brings a unique perspective that enables her to guide procurement projects from an owner's and developer's point of view, while optimizing them with expert cost- and time-efficiency. Backing Heizer's experience is a Bachelor of Science in Interior Design, Art, and Technology from Texas State University.

Prior to her appointment, Heizer's career included a number of notable roles, including most recently as Purchasing Agent at Neil Locke, and an original eight year engagement as Premier's Senior Director of Procurement between 2013 and 2022.

"I'm so appreciative to be rejoining the Premier family in this new role," states Heizer. "The team and the culture at Premier is so inspiring - everyone here authentically loves what they do and is driven to help our clients."

“We’re very pleased to have Corina rejoin our team,” states Richard Oakes, Premier’s Senior Vice President of Procurement. “As one of her first focuses, we’re looking forward to her activating her extensive purchasing experience to help optimize Premier’s relationships with our FF&E and materials vendors on behalf of our hotel and multi-family residential developer clients.”

I’m so appreciative to be rejoining Premier in this new role. The team and the culture here is so inspiring - everyone here authentically loves what they do and is driven to help our clients.”
