

Flavor Palm Beach Expands and Rebrands As Flavor South Florida

Registration is open for Northern Broward County, Palm Beach County, Treasure Coast, & Melbourne restaurants to participate this September

PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA, USA, April 22, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Since its inception in 2007, Flavor Palm Beach has been a beloved event, showcasing the vibrant and diverse culinary scene from Tequesta to Boca Raton. This year, the event is expanding its horizons to reach even more food enthusiasts by including restaurants from Melbourne to Pompano Beach. With this expansion, Flavor Palm Beach is rebranding as Flavor South Florida and aims to provide an unforgettable dining experience for a larger audience.

Flavor South Florida restaurant month will take place in September 2024. Restaurants interested in participating can register now.

Flavor South Florida is thrilled to announce that registration for its 2024 season is now open. Celebrating its 17th year, the highly anticipated annual restaurant month has become a culinary highlight in the region, offering locals and tourists the opportunity to indulge in exquisite multi-course meals at a variety of top-notch restaurants.

Throughout the entire month of September, Flavor South Florida will exclusively offer delectable prix fixe menus at participating restaurants. September was strategically chosen as it aligns with South Florida's slowest tourism period, encouraging locals and visitors to explore the area's culinary treasures.

"We are thrilled to invite everyone to be part of Flavor South Florida's 2024 season, which promises to be our biggest and best one yet," said Kerri Paizzi, CEO of Flavor South Florida. "With the addition of new restaurants and an extended reach, we are excited to showcase the incredible flavors and talents of South Florida's culinary community, which will include James Beard and Michelin Star awarded chefs."
