In addition to being a top producing realtor, Walter is a Real Estate Coach and Published co-author with Raymond Sjolseth, of the book, "The Startup Agent: Start Your Real Estate Business The Right Way, The First Time." He is also a former marathon runner and a devoted community volunteer. His diverse background and commitment to excellence make him a valuable asset to both clients and colleagues alike.

"I am thrilled to join the Epique Realty team and contribute to their continued success," Walter R. Key explained. "I am passionate about helping individuals and families achieve their real estate goals, and I look forward to serving my community with integrity and dedication."

Alongside Walter R. Key, Epique Realty is also excited to welcome his team, The Karbon Club, a co-led organization with 120+ real estate agents dedicated to providing unparalleled support and resources to their members. The Karbon Club aims to empower agents with the knowledge and tools needed to succeed in today's competitive market, fostering a collaborative environment where agents can thrive.

“

Walter Key's diverse background, commitment to excellence, and dedication to serving others align perfectly with Epique Realty's core values of innovation, integrity, and proactive support.”

Christopher Miller, COO and Co-Founder

Recently in a post, Walter Key shared his excitement about joining Epique Realty, “Everything we do at The Karbon Club is centered and driven by one simple question; what can we do to make our agent's life and business better? Well, now there is a brokerage model that perfectly aligns with our mission and quite frankly, they are putting their money where their mouth is!”

Chris Miller, COO and Co-Founder of Epique announced, “Walter Key's diverse background, commitment to excellence, and dedication to serving others align perfectly with Epique Realty's core values of innovation, integrity, and proactive support. We welcome him and his outstanding team to the Epique family.”

During a recent interview on The Ted Show, Walter Key discussed his journey from the Navy to real estate, emphasizing the importance of service and support in the industry. He highlighted the unique value proposition of Epique Realty. The incredible resources and benefits that Epique is providing for agents at no additional cost do not exist anywhere else on the planet. Among many others joining Epique, Walter believes they have completely disrupted the way real estate happens in a very good way.
