HAMILTON, CANADA, April 21, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pink One Productions Inc. invites American viewers to experience the hilarious comedy of Pink Is In, now streaming on Tubi in the USA, Mexico, and Australia, as well as Amazon Prime in the UK. The series has been touted as the next big show out of Canada following the same path as Schitt's Creek, Letter Kenny, and Trailer Park Boys. Pink Is In is a comical look at a dysfunctional women's prison administration and the unhinged inmates in their care.

John Doyle of The Globe and Mail said, "A truly insane but admirable women's prison comedy. This is one of those gutsy Canadian comedies that deserves a much bigger audience."

The Powers Point Podcast said, "It's like The Office behind bars."

The series features incredible Canadian talent Elley-Ray Hennessy (My Little Pony) as Warden Dungworth, Natasha Bromfield (Downsizing, Painkiller) as LaShawndra the Therapist, and Patrick McKenna (The Red Green Show, Traders) as foreign exchange Warden Colonel Kwoka.

"This show has something for everyone!" says show-runner Lisa Crawford. The series also features Trish Rainone as Top Dog, AC Peterson (Tulsa Kings), and Darren Stewart-Jones as drag queen Ruby LaRue. Writer Kim Lombard also plays the role of CEO Pip Barnett.

The Christmas special stars iconic Canadian actress Jayne Eastwood (Going Down The Road, My Big Fat Greek Wedding franchise).

Elley-Ray Hennessy (Best Lead Performance Web Program or Series), Patrick McKenna (Best Lead Performance Web Program or Series), Jayne Eastwood (Best Supporting Performance Web Program or Series).
