

G0e3 to Participate in EarthX 2024 Summit, CEO Bruce Brimacombe to Address Infrastructure Challenges, Power Grid Crisis

Elevating the EV Charging and Power Grid Conversation: Brimacombe Brings Expertise to EarthX

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, USA, April 22, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- G0e3, a leader in electric vehicle (EV) charging technology, announces its participation in EarthX 2024, the premier global environmental expo. CEO Bruce Brimacombe will attend the conference and address the future of sustainable transportation and address the infrastructure challenges of the power grid in the US.

Since 2000, G0e3 has been innovating in the EV space with its patent-pending, modular charging stations designed for longevity and adaptability, crucial for the U.S.'s growing EV infrastructure.

Our participation in this event underscores our commitment to environmental awareness and the advancement of EV technology.”

G0e3 CEO Bruce Brimacombe

Brimacombe said, "G0e3's mission aligns with EarthX's goal to foster environmental stewardship. We're excited to share our journey towards sustainable mobility. Our participation in this event underscores our commitment to environmental awareness and the advancement of EV technology."

EarthX, founded in 2010 by Trammell S. Crow, has grown into the foremost gathering for those dedicated to conservation and sustainability. By joining forces with EarthX, G0e3 aims to further its reach and impact, sharing its innovative solutions and insights with over 177,000 attendees from around the globe.

As GOe3 continues to grow, its participation in EarthX 2024 marks a significant milestone in its journey to revolutionize the EV charging landscape, making electric mobility accessible and convenient for all.
