The gala featured live music by the Studio 54 Band, silent and live auctions, cocktails, and a plated three-course dinner by Chez Gourmet. Funds raised during the event will support the diverse performances, education programs, and emerging visual artist programs offered by Arts Garage.

I am so thankful for our friends, supporters and fans who made the event such a huge success, and to the Studio 54 Band that transported us all back to the golden age of disco!”

Marjorie Waldo, President & CEO, Arts Garage

“The gala is Arts Garage’s most important fundraiser of the year,” said President & CEO of Arts Garage Marjorie Waldo. “I am so thankful for our friends, supporters and fans who made the event such a huge success, and to the Studio 54 Band that transported us all back to the golden age of disco. It was truly an unforgettable night!”

Arts Garage continues to add new programming and events to its schedule. This year is packed with dynamic performances and timely themes – including homelessness, aging, and Black history. Arts Garage is renowned for offering thought-provoking, community-driven, and socially relevant productions from professional, cutting-edge performers, playwrights and artists. For more information, please call 561-450-6357 or visit <https://artsgarage.org>.
