They offer guidance on building essential and efficient teams of advisors and fostering empowering networks of women facing similar circumstances to learn and develop together. Upon finishing the courses, women gain practical insights that can be immediately applied to their journey towards long-term financial prosperity.

Hannah is a member of the W Source and the XX Project, networking organizations for female professionals. Additionally, she holds a position on the board of directors for the UC Santa Barbara Women in Leadership Executive Program.

Throughout her illustrious career, Hannah has received many awards and accolades and has been recognized worldwide for her accomplishments.
