

San Pablo Appoints Brian Bubar Police Chief

SAN PABLO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, April 22, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The City of San Pablo has formally appointed Police Captain Brian Bubar, a 21-year veteran of the San Pablo Police Department, as San Pablo's next Police Chief.

"After an extensive and competitive executive recruitment search, I am pleased to announce San Pablo Police Captain Brian Bubar as San Pablo's next Police Chief," stated San Pablo City Manager Matt Rodriguez.

Bubar, selected from a field of 13 applicants, served as the City's Interim Police Chief following the retirement of former San Pablo Police Chief Ron Raman in late December 2023. Peckham and McKenney, an executive search firm based in Roseville, CA, was retained in January 2024 to conduct the executive search on behalf of the City.

Since 2016, Police Captain Bubar has served in a number of ascending positions of leadership, responsibility and supervision, including several police command positions within the Police Department. In August 2021, Bubar earned a Master's Degree in Law Enforcement and Public Safety Leadership from the University of San Diego, CA, and previously earned a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice from California Coast University in September 2018. Additionally, he is a 2021 graduate of the California Commission of Peace Officers' Standards and Training (P.O.S.T.) Command College Program.

"Police Captain Brian Bubar brings forward a solid, operational reputation and extensive local community knowledge and experience, with his noteworthy leadership credentials to the position of Police Chief. He is a dedicated law enforcement professional who understands the importance of community engagement practices, progressive law enforcement training, and the
