

As the war continues, MAR mining becomes a good choice for cryptocurrency safe-haven assets depreciating

LONDON, UK, April 23, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As the war continues. and the clamor of war tensions between Israel-Gaza and Ukraine-Russia, the narrative of cryptocurrencies as a safe-haven asset has taken on greater resonance.

Veteran hedge fund manager Paul Tudor Jones expressed support for Bitcoin in a recent interview. He reflects on today's volatile geopolitical landscape.

Additionally, Jones paints a grim picture of the cacophony of global tensions between Russia, China and the United States. As a result, there is an increasing urgency to seek financial asylum.

"I like gold and cryptocurrencies together. I think they're probably going to be a bigger part of your portfolio than they have historically been
