North America Scalefusion*

select Scalefusion \(https://scalefusion.com/\) for its Partnership Achievement award at the April 9-11 conference in Puerto Rico. The selection criteria included a call for members to evaluate evidence of strategic benefits: and the quality of partnerships including shared engagement.

Scalefusion's Partner Program reflects the belief that its success is intertwined with the success of its partners. Through unity and collaboration with partners, it seeks to build an unparalleled device management experience for its customers. Scalefusion UEM simplifies device management for device security and compliance. It is designed to help enterprises take control of their entire device fleet: smartphones, tablets, laptops, desktops, and IoT devices.

"Winning the Partnership Achievement Award at ETMA is a testament to how Scalefusion is revolutionizing the UEM space. This award underscores our dedication to building strong partnerships and ongoing commitment to investing in the channel. We're excited to continue this growth and innovation journey by helping partners win, " said Amit Ponam, Sales Director -North America at Scalefusion.

Joe Basili, Managing Director for ETMA, said, "The Partnership Achievement award supports ETMA's mission of promoting the value of networking and collaboration among its members to promote service quality and innovation. The peer voting was based on criteria which included consideration of the challenges, importance of the partnership and the achievements it produced." ETMA seeks to raise industry standards, recognize its members' achievements and promote the value of solutions through the Partnership of the Year Award.
