“As a big podcast fan myself, I've always envisioned a transcription tool that is straightforward, quick, and doesn't tie users down with yet another monthly subscription,” said Wenbin Fang, CEO of Listen Notes. “And while there are other services out there, they are either too slow, too expensive, or don't take advantage of rapidly evolving A.I. tools. So we created exactly what I needed. Listen411 delivers transcriptions in under a minute without the hassle of recurring fees: you just pay as you use it.”
