Party supplies are materials that are required for a party or event. They include various decorative materials such as balloon, games, pinatas, tableware, banners, and others. The party supplies market is experiencing an exponential growth due to emerging fashion and trends. There has been a lot of innovation and utilization of party supplies as accessories, wherein the items are designed according to the occasion.

The leading brands produce supplies for occasions such as birthday, graduation, anniversary, Christmas, Halloween, and others. In addition, expansion of distribution channels, such as online stores, supermarkets, hypermarkets, specialized store, and others, has made these party supplies become easily available to customers, thereby contributing to the party supplies market growth. Online shopping is more convenient compared to physical shopping as consumers could find anything easily on online stores without being physically present in the store. Therefore, growth in digitalization and increase in percentage of population inclined toward online shopping across various countries are expected to provide lucrative opportunities for the party supplies market. In addition, this is anticipated to propel the growth of the party supplies market in the future. From the past few years, there has been an exponential growth in urban population. According to the United Nations (UN), urban population, which is 55% of the world's population presently, is projected to reach 68% by 2050. Increase in urban population is a key factor that propels the party supplies market globally. This is attributed to urban dwellers who prefer ceremonies, parties, & events to connect with their friends and loved ones to create unforgettable moments.

Increase in awareness among kids has also created demand for cartoon character theme party supplies. Change in fashion & trend, theme parties, increase in awareness, surge in disposable income, innovation & technology, expansive categories of supplies, commercial use of supplies, unique designs, and variants in color & material drive the growth of the global party supplies market. Moreover, theme parties and use of latex & mylar balloons and in events & parties are the leading party supplies market trends now. The lockdown scenario caused due to the COVID-19 pandemic has caused the party supplies market to witness loss in sales and revenue. This is attributed to the fact that customers across the globe are maintaining social distancing and restricting themselves from going out frequently to avoid getting infected with COVID-19.
