

Miche Fest Announces 2024 Lineup with New Beachside Stage Headlining Junior H, Kali Uchis, Los Angeles Azules and More

Chicago's Latino Festival Returns with more Sol, Playa, and Micheladas

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, April 24, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Miche Fest, Chicago's Latino Festival, today announces its return on July 13-14, unveiling an exciting new beachside location and lineup featuring Junior H, Kali Uchis, Los Angeles Azules, and Luis R. Conriquez, among others.

Celebrating its sixth year, Miche Fest's anticipated return to Chicago is even sweeter with its debut to Oakwood Beach, elevating the festival experience to new heights and making it bigger and bolder than ever before. The beachside stage also includes performances by Chino Pacas, Santa Fe Klan, Ryan Castro, Piso 21, De La Ghetto, J Santos, Jasiel Nuñez, Hermanos Espinoza, Los Primos del Este, Los Esquivel, and Chicago bands Los K-Bros and El Malo.

The poster for Miche Fest 2024 features a vibrant sunset background with a beach scene. At the top, it says 'CHICAGO'S LATINO FESTIVAL' and 'MICHE FEST'. The dates 'JULY 13-14 2024' and location 'OAKWOOD BEACH CHICAGO, IL' are in the corners. The Saturday lineup includes Kali Uchis, Los Angeles Azules, and Santa Fe Klan, with supporting acts Ryan Castro, Piso 21, De La Ghetto, and J Santos. The Sunday lineup features Junior H, Luis R. Conriquez, and Chino Pacas, with supporting acts Jasiel Nuñez, Hermanos Espinoza, Los Primos del Este, Los Esquivel, Los K-Bros, and El Malo. A list of featured artists is at the bottom, including Mochi, Midon, Papa G, DJ Zel, Neeko, Barbi, DJ Sound, DJ Too Dope, Madd Jazz, Cease Days, Mo Miami, Cedeno, Gonzo, J Stereo, Janesita, and Mistaricksta. The website 'MICHEFEST.LIVE' is prominently displayed.

Miche Fest Headliners & Full Lineup

This year's Miche Fest promises a dynamic celebration of cultura, música latina, and tasty micheladas, offering festival goers an unforgettable summer festival experience. Among the A-List lineup, the festival features larger activations, new games and rides, an enhanced VIP experience, and a vibrant new atmosphere with more sol, playa, and micheladas.

“What started as an idea to blend music, Latin culture, and beloved micheladas has pushed the boundaries of what’s possible,” says Fernando Nieto, Co-founder of Miche Fest. “This festival is for all Latinos to come out and enjoy summertime the way Chicago does it. We’re beyond ecstatic to bring Miche Fest to Oakwood Beach for our sixth year, offering a bigger, bolder, and more exciting experience than ever before.”

Since 2018, Miche Fest has brought top and rising stars to Chicago's South Side neighborhoods for a celebration of culture, community, and summer enjoyment. The beloved home-grown festival grows more significantly each year, and has featured artists such as Prince Royce, Natti Natasha, Gerardo Ortiz, and Elvis Crespo—cultivating a unique blend of Latin musical melodies that unite Chicago’s diverse Latin community. Miche Fest 2024 is presented by Tribú Gives in collaboration with Zamora Live and VivaTuMusica.

Miche Fest is set to take place at Oakwood Beach (4100 South Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, IL, 60653), on July 13-14 from 12 p.m. to 10 p.m. Attendees must be 18 years or older to attend.

Festival tickets go on general sale on Friday, April 26 at 12 p.m. VIP passes are available for ages 21 and older due to the alcohol offerings available exclusively to VIP attendees.
