2024 sees major elections taking place across the globe, including in the US and Asia. Against a backdrop of war in Ukraine and ongoing crisis in the Middle East, 4 billion people, more than half the world's population, take to the polls. At the 29th FUTURE OF ASIA, leaders from across the region gather to discuss the role Asia, which has overcome numerous challenges in its pursuit of cooperation and development, should play in an increasingly uncertain world.

In addition to speeches by the political leaders, the event will include an array of panel discussions featuring experts from numerous fields. Topics will include regional cooperation to build digital ecosystem, Asia’s endeavor to achieve net carbon-zero, the role of Japan, US, and South Korea for regional security in North-East Asia, and so on.
