

JM Gems Owner Peggy Elias Donates $4500 Gold Necklace to Arthritis Society for Celebrity Roast Featuring Shaun Majumder

Presented by the famous news anchor Steve Murphy, this golden donation was the coveted Raffle Prize at the Arthritis Society Canada's 30th Anniversary.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, April 24, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Peggy Elias, the visionary founder of JM Gems, renowned for her artistic brilliance, has generously donated an exquisite piece of jewelry to support the Arthritis Society Canada's 30th Anniversary Celebrity Roast. The 18k rose gold Queen chess piece pendant necklace, adorned with diamonds and sapphires, served as the coveted Raffle Prize at the gala event held on Wednesday, April 17th in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada.

The Arthritis Society Canada extended its deepest gratitude to Peggy Elias and JM Gems for their heartfelt contribution to this milestone occasion. The Celebrity Roast, an event cherished for three decades, is a testament to the unwavering commitment to raising awareness and funding for arthritis research. The generous support from donors like JM Gems enables the society to continue its vital work towards finding a cure and providing essential programs such as Camp JoinTogether, enriching the lives of children living with arthritis.

The 30th Anniversary Celebrity Roast featured esteemed personalities, including returning emcee Steve Murphy and acclaimed comedian Shaun Majumder, who delighted attendees with their wit and charm. The event was made possible by the generous support of presenting sponsors MacGillivray Law and CTV, as well as Flame sponsor TD Bank, who shared in the
