for the award are selected by patients nationwide, and winners are announced during Canadian Fertility Awareness Week, April 21 to 27, 2024.

The FMC Compassion & Care Award is presented to clinics that deeply understand the emotional and physical challenges that can accompany the fertility and family-building journey. These clinics are dedicated to providing a supportive and nurturing environment that fosters healing and hope for their patients.

"Fertility treatment can be physically and emotionally difficult for patients — that's why everything we do is centred around making the journey as easy and comfortable as possible," says Nicole Condon, CEO of TRIO Fertility. "We are deeply honoured to receive the Fertility Matters Compassion & Care Award; it is a testament to our team's unwavering commitment to our patients."

TRIO Fertility Clinic stands out for its personalized, evidence-based treatments and support programs tailored to each patient's unique needs and circumstances. The clinic is committed to minimizing the stress and anxiety that can accompany fertility treatment, providing unique support groups, collaborative expertise, and mental health programs geared to empower patients at every stage of their journey.

In addition to its clinical expertise, TRIO is recognized for its advocacy and outreach efforts. Initiatives such as TRIO's Trauma Informed Care Program demonstrate a deep understanding of the social and cultural context in which fertility treatment is provided and the dedication to advancing the rights and well-being of their patients.

TRIO's collaborative approach to patient care is exemplified in its one-of-a-kind partnership with Canada's leading Fertility-Focused Naturopathic team, Conceive Health, home of fellow 2024 Fertility Matters Award Winner Dr. Jennifer Fitzgerald, ND, recipient of the Excellence in Fertility Care Award.

April 21 to 27 marks Canadian Fertility Awareness Week. TRIO Fertility is proud to stand united as one voice with the 1 in 6 Canadians impacted by fertility challenges. Together, they aim to break stigmas, raise awareness, and advocate for better access to fertility resources and support for all.
