

Feeding Pets of the Homeless Celebrates Historic Milestone with Sierra Veterinary Hospital in Carson City, NV

Over a Decade and a Half of Dedicated Support

CARSON CITY, NEVADA, USA, May 30, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Feeding Pets of the Homeless, a leading nonprofit organization dedicated to providing food and veterinary care to pets of homeless individuals, is proud to announce a momentous occasion in its history. Sierra Veterinary Hospital, located in Carson City, NV, has been honored as the first and oldest Donation Site in the country by Feeding Pets of the Homeless.

In recognition of this remarkable achievement, Feeding Pets of the Homeless presented Sierra Veterinary Hospital with a commemorative plaque, acknowledging their unwavering commitment to supporting the organization's mission for over a decade and a half.

Laura Brown, Executive Director of Feeding Pets of the Homeless, expressed her gratitude for Sierra Veterinary Hospital's longstanding partnership, stating, "Sierra Veterinary Hospital has been instrumental in our efforts to provide essential support to homeless individuals and their beloved pets. Their dedication to our cause has been unwavering, and we are immensely grateful for their continued support over the years."

Steven Kiley, Human Resources Director at Sierra Veterinary Hospital, also shared his thoughts on this significant milestone, saying, "Being recognized as the first and oldest Donation Site by Feeding Pets of the Homeless is a tremendous honor for our team. Since becoming a donation site in 2008, we have witnessed the positive impact of Feeding Pets of the Homeless' work firsthand, and we are proud to play a role in supporting such a worthy cause."
