

Automotive Defense Specialists Announces Post on Bureau of Automotive Repair Vehicle Safety Systems Inspection Program

Automotive Defense Specialists is proud to announce a Q&A post for the auto repair community.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, April 27, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Automotive Defense Specialists, a team of best-in-class defense attorneys focused on auto repair technicians and shop owners at <https://www.automotivedefense.com/>, is proud to announce a new Q&A post on the latest news from the state regulatory agency, the California Bureau of Automotive Repair. As the informative post explains, the new program will change the process for SMOG and auto repair shop owners in California.

Our defense lawyers support auto repair shops and technicians when they come into conflict with the state regulatory agency, i.e., the California Bureau of Auto Repair."

William Ferreira

"Our defense lawyers support auto repair shops and technicians when they come into conflict with the state regulatory agency, i.e., the California Bureau of Auto Repair. Part of that is also informing them of the latest industry news," said lead attorney William Ferreira from Automotive Defense Specialists. He continued, "The newly launched 'Vehicle Safety Systems Inspection Program' will usher in big changes and impact how this community does business. We are here to help explain it and point to information resources on the Internet."

Auto repair professionals can review the Vehicle Safety Systems Inspection Program blog post at <https://automotivedefense.com/2024/04/11/vSSIP/>. The new post highlights several areas of changes to the process as mandated by Assembly Bill 471 (<https://www.bar.ca.gov/arsc/newsletters/newsletter/spring-2023/ab-471-implementation-update>).

The post helps break down the new process into five parts:

1. Overview of the Vehicle Safety Systems Inspection Program
2. Phased Implementation Approach
3. Commencement of Vehicle Safety Systems Inspection
4. Technician Requirements and BAR Safety Inspection System
5. Transition from Brake and Lamp Programs

Interested persons can also review the firm's "what we do page" at <https://automotivedefense.com/about/services/>. Any auto repair shop owner or technician who is facing a disciplinary action from the Bureau of Automotive Repair is recommended to reach out for a consultation vs. 'going it alone.'

BUREAU OF AUTOMOTIVE REPAIR DEFENSE ATTORNEYS ANNOUNCE SHIFT IN AUTO REPAIR TRENDS

Here is the background on this release. The Bureau of Automotive Repair has launched a new process for car safety inspections. The new program aims to bolster vehicle safety by certifying safety systems and facilitating salvage-titled vehicle registrations with the DMV. SMOG testing and small auto repair shops may need to update current inspection processes to adhere to the new requirements as passed by 2023 California Assembly Bill 471. The shift in the process will be a phased implementation approach with support during the transition period, including waivers for certain license holders until a later date.
