

Wellspring Counseling Expands its Services with New Key Largo Location

New location within First Baptist Church of Key Largo will offer traditional counseling services, with a particular focus on trauma-related issues

KEY LARGO, FL, UNITED STATES, April 25, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Wellspring Counseling, one of Florida's largest non-profit counseling centers and outreach ministries, is expanding into Key Largo. The highly respected mental health organization has opened a new office within First Baptist Church of Key Largo, located at 99001 Overseas Hwy, Key Largo, FL.

Providing both mental health services and education, Wellspring will be serving the needs of the Key Largo community and surrounding areas.

"Wellspring understands the importance of accessibility and convenience when seeking counseling services and is committed to providing support to individuals and families in Key Largo and surrounding communities," says Tova Kreps, Co-Founder and President of Wellspring Counseling. "The First Baptist family has welcomed us with open arms, and we very much look forward to furthering mental health options in the community."

Finding the right counseling center couldn't be more convenient for those that live in Key Largo and the upper Keys. Whether someone is seeking support for themselves, their family, or children, Wellspring Counseling offers a diverse team of qualified counselors to meet their client's specific needs. The compassionate and experienced therapists support present and future clients on their journey towards healing and growth.
