

Enhancing Oregon Community Safety: Five City Police Departments Transform Behavioral Health outcomes with DrCloudEHR

We are thrilled to partner with the City Police Departments' BHUs," said Ramana Reddy, CEO at EnSoftek.

BEAVERTON, OREGON, UNITED STATES, April 25, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- EnSoftek, Inc. announced that the Lake Oswego Police Department Behavioral Health Unit (BHU), along with the BHUs of the Canby, Oregon City, Milwaukie, and West Linn Police Departments, have successfully gone live with EnSoftek's digital healthcare platform, DrCloudEHR™.

"We are thrilled to partner with the City Police Departments' BHUs," said Ramana Reddy, CEO at EnSoftek. "DrCloudEHR will empower these dedicated teams to enhance their services and improve outcomes for the community."

This consortium of Behavioral Health Units in the City Police Departments of Clackamas County uses DrCloudEHR to track, document, and report on their interactions with community members to improve outcomes related to Behavioral Health Unit activities, which include the following visits:

Community Meetings

Interactions with clients and their families with/or without the client present

Mobile Visits with/without Police

Community Outreach Activities

Phone Contacts

DrCloudEHR facilitates the BHUs with the creation of comprehensive and standardized documentation, ensuring clear communication and seamless case management. The platform enables efficient tracking of interactions and outcomes, allowing the BHUs to analyze trends and measure the impact of their services. Additionally, DrCloudEHR fosters collaboration between officers and mental health professionals, leading to a more coordinated response to community needs.

The City Police Departments BHUs successfully implemented DrCloudEHR through an expedited process, transitioning from kickoff on February 22nd, 2024, to a fully operational system today. This rapid implementation shows the platform's user-friendliness and EnSoftek's commitment to supporting efficient service delivery. The adoption of DrCloudEHR by the City Police Departments

BHUs marks a significant step forward in improving access to quality behavioral health services. EnSoftek is proud to support these dedicated teams in their mission to promote community well-being.
