Healthcare Art Consulting & Quality Art House (HAC & QAH) Release May Breakroom E-News Graphics Collection

DALLAS, TX, US, April 25, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Healthcare Art Consulting & Quality Art House (HAC & QAH) are proud to announce the release of their May collection of holiday and healthcare observance graphics, available exclusively to subscribers of their Breakroom E-News™ program. This new collection provides a comprehensive suite of graphics that spotlight a wide range of significant observances and holidays, promoting awareness and recognition across healthcare and corporate environments.

A Comprehensive Visual Guide for May Observances

We're always adding new holidays and observances to our graphic collections in order to best serve our clients' needs.”

Sara Beth Joyner

May is marked by numerous health and social awareness themes which HAC & QAH has brought to life through engaging and informative graphics. These visuals serve not only to educate but also to foster a deeper understanding and appreciation for diverse health issues and cultural celebrations. Director of Design, Mercedes Burton, shared “we constantly get positive feedback from our Breakroom

E-News clients about these monthly graphic collections taking so much work off their plates while allowing for constant staff education.”

Highlighting Major Health and Social Observances

This collection includes graphics for:

- Stroke Awareness Month, which educates on the risk factors and symptoms associated with stroke to enhance prevention and treatment.
- Mental Health Awareness Month, focusing on breaking the stigma surrounding mental health issues and promoting the importance of mental well-being.
- Skin Cancer Awareness Month, which aims to raise awareness about the most common form of cancer in the United States and the importance of protective measures.
- National Nurses Month, acknowledging the vital role nurses play in healthcare and celebrating their dedication and service.
- Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month, celebrating the contributions and influence of Asian Americans and Pacific Islander Americans to the history, culture, and achievements of the United States.

Additionally, the collection features graphics for specific weeks such as National Nurses Week and National Hospital Week, and for significant days like World Asthma Day and Mother's Day, each designed to highlight important health messages or celebrate key cultural and professional contributions. "We're always adding new holidays and observances to our graphic collections in order to best serve our clients' needs" added President, Sara Beth Joyner.

Versatile Educational Tools

Each graphic in the May collection is crafted to be both educational and visually appealing, making it an ideal resource for use in digital signage across various settings. These graphics not only enhance the aesthetic appeal of workplace environments but also serve as conversation starters about important health topics and cultural observances.
