Global Gaming Data is now licensing world class sports data feeds to North American digital publishers, and the company has enhanced the SportsDataLive.com website to serve as a consumer facing showcase of their sports data product offerings and capabilities. Sports betting capabilities for consumers will be launching within SportsDataLive.com products in approved U.S. states in Q3, 2024.

"Our sports data catalogue covers virtually all sports around the world, to include the NFL, NBA, MLB, NHL, MLS,

NASCAR, F1, and all major NCAA sports as well as international sports including over 600 soccer leagues from around the globe", said John Brier, Global Gaming Data's Managing Partner. "The SportsDataLive.com website allows consumers to access realtime sports data and information for their favorite sports, teams, leagues, games, and players from around the world. From a sports information perspective SportsDateLive.com offers consumers as much statistical sports information as they would find at ESPN, CBS Sports, or any other world-class sports information web site," added Brier.

SportsDataLive.com allows digital publishers interested in licensing sports data a realtime look at Global Gaming Data's sports data products in action. SportsDataLive.com has launched in a beta version in English, and the site will be available in English and Spanish in the near future. The beta launch of the SportsDataLive.com website covers NFL, NHL, NBA, MLB, NCAA men's football and basketball, WNBA, F1 Racing, and PGA. Additional sports, features and sports data functions, including the ability to wager on sporting events, will be added to SportsDataLive throughout Q1, and Q2, 2024.

Global Gaming Data offers content across an array of digital publishers including newspapers, sports books, television stations, portals, app builders, and digital device manufacturers allowing for the ability to deliver live in game scoring, scores, standings, schedules, odds, injury reports, television broadcasting schedules, box scores, stats and more to their audiences. A fully customizable and localized sports data widget is available for digital publishers looking to integrate turnkey sports data to their digital properties at the lowest cost pricing available in North America. Full 2024 Paris Olympic coverage widgets are also available to digital publishers through Global Gaming Data for as low as $500.00 per month.

The management team at Global Gaming Data has over two-decades in the digital data licensing space and has built and licensed data products deployed against wide distribution by consumers around the globe with over 4 billion instances. The licensed sports data offerings are fully deployable and designed to offer digital publishers in North America. The Sports Data Live platform allows for build alacrity and customization making for both ease of use and world class functionality.
