Early Beginnings and Motivation

Eirini's journey began in the picturesque landscapes of Greece, where she was deeply influenced by the rich history and passionate culture around her. Her academic path in Sociology and Human Behavior Analysis provided her with a robust foundation to explore the intricacies of human relationships. However, it was her personal encounters with relationship dynamics and her subsequent training in NLP (Neuro-Linguistic Programming) and positive psychology that truly shaped her approach to coaching.

Love does not consist of gazing at each other, but in looking outward together in the same direction.”

Antoine de Saint-Exupéry

Cultivating the 'Love Lifestyle'

At the core of My Lovetail's philosophy is the belief that self-worth and relationship satisfaction are profoundly interconnected. Eirini argues that true empowerment in relationships stems from a well-developed sense of self-worth. "When individuals appreciate their own value," Eirini states, "they set a standard for how they expect to be treated, which in turn, cultivates relationships that are respectful, nurturing, and fulfilling."

Her programs are designed to guide participants through various stages of personal growth and relationship building:

Core Programs of My Lovetail

The Tail of SelfWorth: This program empowers participants to recognize and embrace their intrinsic value, fostering self-respect and confidence that radiates in every aspect of life.

The Tail of Intimacy: Focuses on deepening connections through emotional and physical intimacy. Participants learn to communicate more effectively and build trust, strengthening the bonds of their relationships.

The Tail of Love: Aimed at those seeking meaningful romantic connections, this program helps individuals attract partners who align with their values and life goals through targeted strategies and self-reflection.
