He is also the Director of Media and Press at FilAm Creative year 2023 and advisory this year 2024. Truly, he has journeyed a remarkable path, "from humble beginnings in a bedroom," he says, "to the glamorous Hollywood Red Carpet."

Hollywood Blogger MJ Racadio is celebrating 10 years of "inspiring stories and extolling the triumph of Filipino Americans in the entertainment industry" on April 28, 2024. He's memorializing this momentous occasion with an 'invite only' event with successful people in the entertainment industry who have been his inspiration and who are his role models.

"I have 10 uplifting accounts of success and perseverance," MJ states, "plus the unforgettable moments of Golden Globes and Miss Universe. I am grateful to our Almighty God," he added, "for reaching Diamond Year, 10th anniversary of Blogtalk with MJ Racadio, which started as a vision to inspire and empower one person at a time."

In conjunction with the celebration, there will be the highly anticipated music video viewing of "Lumayo Ka Man Sa Akin," directed by Malou and Randal Kamradt of Soliloquy Films.

Randal is a Filipino-American writer/director of award-winning films, while Maria 'Malou' Kamradt is a producer, director and choreographer. Born and raised in Biliran, Philippines, she is responsible for much of the Filipino culture in the work of Soliloquy Films. The Director of Photography is Frederick Duarte (Nike, Brass Necklace) and the talented editor is Daniel Tong
