DCRO Institute*

Sigal serves as a member of the board of directors of GoDaddy, ADT as a member of the audit committee, and HashiCorp, where she chairs the nomination/governance committee. In prior executive roles, Sigal was International CIO and Head of Transformation for Morgan Stanley and vice chairman and global chief information officer for PwC in New York, where she led technology strategy and delivery worldwide. She began her career with GE Capital, where she ultimately served as chief information officer – GE Capital Americas. Sigal also lends her expertise through service on non-profit boards and mentoring young talent. She earned her MBA from Columbia University and her BS in information technology from Technion - Israel Institute of Technology.

"Sigal has an impressive resume of board and executive leadership experiences, especially around technology," said David R. Koenig, QRD®, President and Chief Executive Officer of the DCRO Institute. "Utilizing a positive approach to risk governance is especially important as technology drives revolutionary changes."

The Certificate in Risk Governance® is awarded to those who have completed The Board Members' Course on Risk® - an intensive 17-course education program and evaluation. The curriculum is designed for current and aspiring board members who seek to advance the governance of risk-taking at their organizations and those who interact with boards. Taught by some of the world's leading figures in risk governance, the program features lessons by nearly 50 board members, C-level executives, and well-known authors from five continents. No course on risk for board members as robust as this - depth, practicality, and global expertise - exists anywhere else.

“In this period of rapid change, every board director has to deeply understand how multiple risk factors might impact their company’s growth, operations, and culture,” said Ms. Sigal. “The DCRO Institute’s risk governance course focuses on value creation and positive risk management at a comprehensive, detailed, and global level with impressive subject matter experts.”

The fundamental Duty of Care for directors around risk is to ensure that our organizations take risks well in pursuit of our goals and ambitions.

This course furthers the fulfillment of that duty. Candidates may enroll in the Certificate in Risk Governance® program by visiting <https://courses.dcroi.org>.
