

Philippe Pastor at Miart 2024 with "Bleu Monochrome" Series

Philippe Pastor's 'Bleu Monochrome' Series Shines at Miart 2024, Hosted by Robilant+Voena Gallery, in Collaboration with Rani Vanouska T. Modely

MILAN, MILANO, ITALY, April 29, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As Miart, Milan's premier international modern and contemporary art fair prepares to open its doors from April 12th to April 14th, 2024, to exhibit groundbreaking artistic talents. Monegasque artist Philippe Pastor with the "Bleu Monochrome" series will be presented there by the Robilant+Voena Gallery.

Located at Stand E104 in the Allianz MiCo, Hall 3, Robilant+Voena offers a VIP Preview on April 11th, followed by General Admission from April 12th to 14th. This year's fair promises an eclectic mix of contemporary and modern art, featuring paintings, sculptures, textiles, and paper works.

Philippe Pastor, renowned for his dynamic engagement with environmental themes and the profound use of colour and pigments, will showcase his latest "Bleu Monochrome" series at Miart 2024. Four mixed media on canvas works, each measuring 73 x 60 cm will be exhibited at MiArt.

These pieces continue Philippe Pastor's exploration of colour's power and the relationship between humanity and nature. The "Bleu Monochrome" series, with its deep, immersive blues, invites viewers to reflect on the artist's dialogue with the environment.

Alongside Philippe Pastor, the Robilant+Voena Gallery presents Stephen Appleby-Barr, Damien Hirst, Minjung Kim, Harumi Klossowska de Rola, Tristano di Robilant, Antoine Roegiers, Sergio Roger, Cesar Santos, and Julian Schnabel. The bond that connects these artists is their profound connection to artistic traditions that unite centuries. Each artist brings a unique perspective, drawing inspiration from the past, whether it's through the elegance of classical sculpture, the precision of traditional Eastern calligraphy, or the rich heritage of Old Master paintings.

Miart 2024 serves as a platform for these artists to display their creations, reinforcing the fair's reputation as a key event in the international art calendar. Philippe Pastor's "Bleu Monochrome" series, in particular, stands as a highlight, promising to captivate and inspire audiences with its depth and beauty.
