

Superstars Matthias Manasi and Rüya Taner with the Orquestra Sinfonica do Teatro Nacional Claudio Santoro

Two exceptional works, two exceptional artists: Rüya Taner and Matthias Manasi with works by Mozart, Tschaikovsky and Balci in a symphony concert in Brasília.

NEW YORK, USA, May 2, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Superstars Matthias Manasi and Rüya Taner perform with the Orquestra Sinfonica do Teatro Nacional Claudio Santoro in Teatro Plinio Marcos in Brazil's capital city Brasília. The concert titled "Turkish Concert" will take place on 16 May 2024.

The concert will open with the lively and colorful Balkan Overture by Istanbul born Turkish composer Oghuzhan Balci, who is one of today's leading contemporary composers. Star pianist Rüya Taner will then be the soloist in Mozart's Piano Concerto No. 21, K. 467. This will be followed by Peter Tschaikovsky's "Francesca da Rimini" whose dramatic music tells the story of a forbidden love without a happy ending. Poetry – that was what Peter Tchaikovsky missed when he attended the Ring performance in Bayreuth in 1876; in the same year he realized his own idea of poetic music in the orchestral fantasy "Francesca da Rimini", which unfolds a magnificent and rousing tableau, from lyrical passages with beguiling richness of color to dramatic and theatrical outbursts. Based on an episode from Dante's "Inferno", the tragic plot of the original also reflects the composer's emotional turmoil at a time when he was caught up in the greatest inner crisis of his life.

Rüya Taner

Rüya Taner, acknowledged as one of Turkey's new generation leading concert pianists and a Steinway artist, is originally from Turkish Republic of North Cyprus. Her musical training began with her father, which followed studies at Ankara State Conservatoire with Mithat Fenmen and Tulga Cetiz. At the age of 11, highly Gifted Children Act enabled Taner to gain a state scholarship to London, where she studied with Joan Havill at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama, gaining both degrees from AGSM and ARCM from The Royal College of Music and the rarely given Concert Recital Diploma.

Throughout her student years, she participated in many master classes including Pascal Devoyon (London) and Pascal Roge (Nice), after which she performed together at Bellapais Festival in Northern Cyprus. A prize winner of many national festivals around the United Kingdom, which include first prize at "National Mozart Piano Competition, Oxford and Hatfield" festivals, in which she was praised by critics for her interpretation of Franz Liszt and later at her London Wigmore Hall debut recital.

Since her debut at The Wigmore Hall, she appeared at London's St. John's Smith Square, Fairfield Hall and major venues within the U.K. She has toured extensively over almost 75 countries in Europe, USA, Asia and the Gulf region, giving solo recitals, chamber music and concerto performances.

Taner has performed with the leading State and private orchestras in Ankara, Istanbul, Izmir, Antalya, Bursa, Adana and Mersin, The Turkish Armed Forces Band orchestra in Turkey, Sofia Philharmonic Orchestra, Plovdiv Philharmonic Orchestra, Moldovan National Symphony Orchestra, MAV Orchestra in Hungary, Philharmonic orchestras in Belgium, Ukraine, Sarajevo,
