

George Dietrich At Dietrich Law Office Maintains His ThreeBestRated® Award Winning Streak In 2024 Too

KITCHENER, ONTARIO, CANADA, April 30, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Winning an award as a token of appreciation will always be great to feel. It makes one feel self satisfied about his/her service to the people and it also motivates them to work even harder and provide the best to their clientele. George Dietrich from Dietrich Law Office, Kitchener has earned these kinds of appreciations continuously throughout his long career. Recently, he is once again picked as one of the best personal injury lawyers in the region for his diligent efforts to serve his clientele.

"I have always worked keeping my clients in mind. I want to keep their trust in me and I have always achieved success in the concern. I think this dedication to help them in their personal injury concerns has helped me become a renowned lawyer in the domain. I'm always grateful for every individual who believed in me. Thanks to ThreeBestRated® for making it evident once again with their special 50-Point Inspection!," said George Dietrich while receiving the award.

Greatness Of George Dietrich In Service!

After completing his legal education at the University of Windsor Law School in 1989, George earned degrees in both Science (Physics and Mathematics) and the Arts (Political Science) and started practising his term as a lawyer in 1991. Since then he has had a wonderful career helping people on various personal injury issues. He has also obtained a master's degree in Law from the Institute of Air and Space Law at McGill University in 2002. He is a former director of the Ontario Trial Lawyers Association and has previously held the position of chairperson of the Canada Pension Plan Review Tribunal which shows his expertise in the service. He is also highly affordable with a fee structure based on contingency agreements. Being highly responsive and open to his clients makes him the best choice.
