partnerships, exceptional service, and comprehensive managed IT solutions, has been named as one of UpCity's 2024 National Excellence Awards.

It can be challenging to expand to serve a wider geographic area at the same high level of quality, so we're honored to be recognized by UpCity for our work in not just NY, but NJ, Denver and LA."

Daniel Haurey Jr., President and Founder

Every year, UpCity's National Excellence Award rankings honor outstanding B2B service providers at the national level, based on UpCity review scores. With a five-star rating from its small to midsized business clients, Exigent has secured national recognition after ranking among the top local IT services providers in New York for three years running.

"It can be challenging to expand from a single location to serve a wider geographic area at the same high level of quality, so we're honored to be recognized by UpCity for our work in not just New York, but New Jersey, Denver, and Los Angeles," said Daniel Haurey Jr., President and Founder of Exigent Technologies. "This award validates our commitment to excellent service and longterm partnerships with clients, which is captured in the exceptional reviews written by our customers on UpCity. We cannot thank them enough for their support and kind words."

UpCity was founded in 2009 to help businesses navigate the rapidly changing world of digital marketing. As the number of marketing service providers grew, so did the challenges for businesses searching for information they could trust to drive their decisions. Today, UpCity has expanded its footprint to serve as a resource that connects businesses to service providers they can trust, from marketing agencies to accounting firms to HR consultants, and more. Service providers rely on UpCity to increase visibility, showcase brand credibility, and build trust. More than 1.5 million businesses have visited UpCity seeking professional services from 84,000+ B2B service providers in 600+ cities across North America.
