Kennels, a distinguished breeder of European Dobermans, is thrilled to announce the arrival of its latest litter, which showcases a lineage of multi-national champions and boasts superior genetics. Renowned for its commitment to health and excellence, Lakewood Dobermann Kennel continues to redefine standards in the breeding of Dobermans that are ideally suited for sport, protection, service, and family companionship.

This litter is a testament to our breeding program, which emphasizes comprehensive health testing, workability, and balanced temperament and adheres to the highest ethical breeding practices.”

Rick Pezzino

“Our mission has always been to produce Dobermans that are aesthetically elite and conform to the highest breed standards and are also robust, well-tempered, and capable of excelling both as family members and protectors,” said Rick Pezzino of Lakewood Kennels. “This litter is a testament to our philosophy and breeding program, which emphasizes comprehensive health testing and adheres to the highest ethical breeding practices.”

Each puppy from Lakewood Kennels is backed by a three-year health guarantee, certifying freedom from genetic health issues. The kennel's breeding pairs are meticulously selected from 100% European bloodlines, renowned for their balanced temperaments, trainability, and longevity.

Prospective owners are encouraged to join the waiting list to secure the opportunity to welcome a new member into their homes. Lakewood Kennels remains dedicated to supporting owners throughout their journey, providing lifetime breeder support and fostering a community for all
