

"The Ballad of a Hustler" Triumphs with Best Dramatic Feature at Arizona International Film Festival

Written by and starring Bernardo Barreto, directed by Heitor Dhalia, the film is in the Festival Route in 2024

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, May 1, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The cinematic landscape has been marked by a poignant new milestone as "The Ballad of a Hustler," a film that delves into the complex life of an immigrant in the United States, clinched the Best Dramatic Feature Award at the Arizona International Film Festival this past Sunday. The film, penned by Bernardo Barreto and helmed by director Heitor Dahlia, is now poised to captivate audiences at its upcoming screening at the Beverly Hills Film Festival.

"The Ballad of a Hustler" Best Dramatic Feature of Arizona International Film Festival

A Riveting Tale of Struggle and Survival "The Ballad of a Hustler" is not just a film; it's a narrative that resonates with the heartbeat of America's immigrant experience. The film stars Bernardo Barreto, Robbie Johns, Emeraude Toubia, Andréa Beltrão, Drew Moerlein, and Robin Lord Taylor. The film is a collaborative effort produced by Berny Filmes and Yale Productions.

After its victory in Arizona, the film's journey continues as it is set to screen at the prestigious Beverly Hills Film Festival. The event promises to be a showcase of the film's raw emotional power and its urgent message on the realities of immigration and the human spirit's resilience. Screening Invitation Members of the press and the public are cordially invited to attend the screening of "The Ballad of a Hustler" and witness a story that transcends borders and touches the core of our shared humanity.
