

Senior Living Expert Advises Seniors To 'Invest In Themselves'

SOUTHFIELD, MI, USA, May 1, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- When discussing retirement priorities, nationally renowned senior living expert Tripp Higgins highlights the importance of community over senior living options and their associated costs.

Although money may not provide warmth at night, investing it in yourself can enhance your experiences and allow you to fully embrace and enjoy life without getting caught up in the minutiae.”

Higgins stressed the importance of having a plan and understanding its components. While money isn't the most important factor, he recommends individuals invest in themselves.

Higgins has collaborated with Presbyterian Villages of Michigan to offer a complimentary virtual presentation discussing the significance of lifestyle and community in retirement planning, scheduled for Thursday, May 23, 2024.
