

Fitzgerald Auto Malls to Celebrate the Opening of New Chambersburg, PA Dealership

The new Dealership in Chambersburg, PA boasts approx. 15,000 square feet of new and used car showroom, service, and parts facilities.

CHAMBERSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, May 6, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Fitzgerald Auto Malls, one of the region's leaders in automotive sales and service, will celebrate the official opening of their new dealership in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania.

The event, which commemorates the completion of the approximately 15,000 square foot dealership and 5,500 sq. ft. parts department, will include a ribbon-cutting ceremony and remarks by Nissan and Toyota executives, as well as executives from Fitzgerald Auto Malls including President Rob Smith and General Manager, Emily Moore. Lunch will follow the ribbon cutting.

We are proud to have been part of the Chambersburg Township for more than thirty years and to continue that investment in this new facility for the benefit of the community and our people”

Rob Smith

“We are proud to have been part of the Chambersburg Township in Franklin County for more than thirty years,” said Rob Smith, president of Fitzgerald Auto Mall “and now we are excited to continue that investment in this new facility for the benefit of the community and our people.”

The evolution of the new Chambersburg dealership began in early April 2023 with the arrival of temporary mobile offices. Demolition of the existing showroom, which was approximately 4,000 sq. ft. and a parts department of approx. 1,700 sq. ft. began on May 9th. By the end of July, footers and the footprint of the new showrooms were defined, the concrete pad was poured, and the first block wall started taking shape.

In August/September, the steel structure came to life and in the Fall of 2023, the dealership was officially under roof. By early March 2024, the trailers were removed, and Fitzgerald Associates moved into the new facility. The dealership will employ over 100 Fitzgerald Associates.
