The event celebrated the spirit of the Olympics and the heart of family fun at its Phoenix location.

The Olympic Block Party gave young athletes the extraordinary opportunity to experience the grandeur of an Olympic March-In, complete with an Olympic torch and the stirring sounds of Olympic music. Participants, proudly wearing their Olympic Sunrays leotards or t-shirts, led their families through a series of events, showcasing their own uniquely crafted Olympic routines.

After the exhibition, the young Olympians led their families to the "Olympic Village" in the center's courtyard. This area became a hub of excitement with local vendors, food trucks, bounce houses, yard games, and even temporary tattoo stations. Families enjoyed various activities and relished in the festive atmosphere reminiscent of the true Olympic Village experience.

The Awards Room was a moment of triumph for their young gymnasts. Each participant, beaming with pride, received a medal, a tangible symbol of their hard work and dedication. This was not just a moment of celebration for the athletes, but also for the families and the community that rallied behind them.

Committed to inclusivity, they ensured the event was accessible to all. Tickets were affordably priced, and children under ten enjoyed free entry. The $65 registration included admission for two adults, a variety of family activities, and the award ceremony. As a special bonus, attendees had the chance to win one month of free tuition or a free birthday party package at the center in a raffle.

At Arizona Sunrays, they are proud to foster a sense of community and camaraderie. The 2024 Olympic Block Party was a testament to this, providing a platform for young athletes to shine and for families to gather in celebration of their achievements and the communal love of sport.
