MIDDLETOWN, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, May 7, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Alliance Orthopedics proudly announces the addition of Dr. William Gallagher, a distinguished expert in sports medicine, to their esteemed team of healthcare professionals. With a commitment to patient-centered care, Dr. Gallagher brings a wealth of expertise to Alliance Orthopedics, reinforcing the practice's dedication to state-of-the-art orthopedic care.

Dr. Gallagher's journey to becoming a leading sports medicine specialist began with a master's degree in Biomedical Sciences from the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, followed by a medical degree from the University of Medicine and Health Sciences. His residency in Family Medicine at Hoboken University Medical Center honed his skills in comprehensive patient care, setting the stage for his specialization in sports medicine.

Passionate about sports medicine, Dr. Gallagher pursued a fellowship in Primary Care Sports Medicine at Pennsylvania State College of Medicine. During this time, he gained invaluable experience caring for athletes from various levels, contributing to the medical care of Penn State University teams and the State College Spikes, a minor league affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Dr. Gallagher's expertise spans a wide range of orthopedic injuries, from acute musculoskeletal injuries to chronic overuse conditions. He specializes in non-operative fracture management,
