

The Curse of La Patasola Now Available Worldwide via Pay-per-view

Horror Film Accessible via Apple iTunes, Google Play and Soon Amazon Prime Video.

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, May 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Producers of the horror film The Curse of La Patasola announced today that the film is now available to fans around the world via Pay-per-view on Apple iTunes, Google Play and will soon be available on Amazon Prime Video.

Additionally, The Curse of La Patasola is now subtitled in Spanish and Portuguese and available for viewers to rent or purchase in more than 80 territories around the world including: Australia, Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Mexico, The United Kingdom, Ireland, Belgium, British Virgin Islands, Bulgaria, Lithuania, Denmark, Malta, Malaysia, Hungary, Portugal, Sweden, Poland, Greece, Cambodia, the Philippines and Vietnam.

The global Pay-per-view release comes after a theatrical release in the United States and Screen Rant recently naming The Curse of La Patasola "The #1 Horror Movie Based on Latin American Folklore."

Shot over a 21-day period in a swamp just outside of Orlando, Florida, The Curse of La Patasola follows two struggling couples who are haunted by a famed vampiric monster from South American folklore, testing their relationships, morality, and will to survive.

Marking the directorial debut of actor/writer AJ Jones (Lovecraft Country), with a story co-created by Jones and Florida native Daniela Gonzalez (Frenemies) and a screenplay co-written with Shaun
