

Craft Health Earns 2024 Great Place To Work Certification™

Craft Health continues to prioritize employee satisfaction and excellence in workplace culture.

TULSA, OK, UNITED STATES, May 7, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Craft Health is proud to be Certified™ by Great Place To Work® for the third year in a row. The prestigious award is based entirely on what current employees say about their experience working at Craft Health.

Craft Health Earns 2024 Great Place To Work Certification™

Great Place To Work® is the authority on workplace culture, employee experience and the leadership behaviors proven to deliver market-leading revenue, employee retention and increased innovation.

"Great Place To Work Certification is a highly coveted achievement that requires consistent and intentional dedication to the overall employee experience,"

At Craft Health, we strive to foster a culture where individuals can do gratifying work, genuinely express themselves, and contribute to the company mission, while having fun.”

Trey Marler

says Sarah Lewis-Kulin, the Vice President of Global Recognition at Great Place To Work. She emphasizes that Certification is the sole official recognition earned by the real-time feedback of employees regarding their company culture. “By successfully earning this recognition, it is evident that Craft Health stands out as one of the top companies to work for, providing a great workplace environment for its employees.”

“At Craft Health, we strive to foster a culture where individuals can do gratifying work, genuinely express themselves and contribute to the company mission, while having fun,” expressed Trey Marler, Craft Health’s President and Founder.

According to Great Place To Work research, job seekers are 4.5 times more likely to find a great boss at a Certified great workplace. Additionally, employees at Certified workplaces are 93% more likely to look forward to coming to work, and are twice as likely to be paid fairly, earn a fair share of the company's profits, and have a fair chance at promotion.
