Ascendum Solutions, a global digital innovation firm, today announced the launch of a refreshed brand identity and website. This brand identity celebrates a growing global footprint and the advancement of thousands of elevated client achieving goals through digital innovations and optimized business processes. Ascendum's teams fuse technology, data engineering, and design thinking to create meaningful real-world solutions.

Every digital solution we develop embodies our relentless pursuit of excellence and our dedication to turning imaginative ideas into tangible solutions that enhance human experiences.”

Kris Nair, President & CEO

“In a world that's constantly evolving, our commitment at Ascendum to 'Develop Beyond' isn't just a slogan—it's a promise to transcend the ordinary, forge ahead with innovation, and create lasting impacts for our clients, our team, and our community,” said Ascendum President and CEO Kris Nair. “Every digital solution we develop embodies our relentless pursuit of excellence and our dedication to turning imaginative ideas into tangible solutions that enhance human experiences. This is the essence of Ascendum.”

Founded in 2008, Ascendum is an award-winning digital solutions firm specializing in custom software development, UX/UI and brand design, data engineering, business automations, quality assurance, IT talent augmentation, and mortgage/accounting outsourcing solutions. The company helps their clients—from technology startups to the Fortune 100—accelerate their digital transformation strategies through the discovery process and blending innovative technologies with beautiful design.
