About The Host:

John Robert Hatherly is an artist, designer, and contemplative thinker at the helm of The Infinite Search, a podcast exploring the human experience to seek a better understanding of ourselves and the world around us. Inspired by the shared human condition, their art and design invite viewers to ask big questions. To hold multiple truths. To covet the lived experience. To center on the heart. Hatherly believes in mastery taking generations and approaches their work with a sense of naïvety and wonder—an infinite search for voice through a series of discrete, playful explorations to create forms that awaken curiosity, inspire wonder, uplift neighbors, and illuminate life.
