Loan Provider - a nationwide commercial mortgage advisory firm, has announced that Dominick Prevete has arranged a $4,894,000 loan for the combined acquisition and refinance of three commercial properties in West Palm Beach Florida. The borrower is a very active real estate investor/operator based in Florida.

“This is a repeat client who has a substantial portfolio of properties and this newly acquired property will likely end up as the cornerstone to that portfolio. So, that added a certain level of importance to this project. The client relied upon us to arrange the leverage of two existing retail properties and to finance the new acquisition of a third industrial property and we knew exactly what to do”, Prevete said.

Dominick collaborated with a leading New York based debt firm that specializes in providing debt for commercial real estate. “Our capital partner on this transaction has over 100+ years entrepreneurship, institutional expertise, and experience which makes me really fortunate to be able work with such professional partners,” Dominick continued.
