Evan Darnell, Founder of Red Meat Lover's Club

“The RMLC was honored to host this event to support the local police in our community,” said Evan Darnell, Founder of Red Meat Lover's Club. “With increasing community expectations, budget reductions, rapidly changing equipment and technology, the need for a flexible funding option separate from the city budgetary process is more important than ever.”

“The event has quickly become one of the foundation's most popular community fundraisers,” said Debbie Levine, Executive Director of the Boca Raton Police Foundation. “The Red Meat Lovers Club members are incredibly generous."
