

The 10 Best Mountain Places to Retire in the Southeast - Topretirements.com

Topretirements was asked by a reader for help finding a great mountain town in the Southeast for retirement. That spawned a whole new 10 Best List.

KEY WEST, FL, USA, May 9, 2024
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Brian, a long time visitor to Topretirements.com, had a problem. Retired in Beaufort, SC, golf and boating had no allure for him, and he felt stuck in the wrong place. The area was getting expensive too. Family members were urging him to move, but with conflicting advice.

Find where to retire at Topretirements.com

Coming to Topretirements.com, he asked for help. The most important thing Brian wanted in a place to retire was to have access to the outdoors and mountains. Budget limitations ruled out a return to his native New England. Could Topretirements help him find some great places to retire in the Southeast?

10 Best Mountain Places to Retire in the Southeast
The Topretirements editorial team got to work combing through its capsule Reviews of thousands of great places to retire, looking for the 10 best mountain towns in the Southeast. Great possibilities immediately emerged in Georgia, the Carolinas, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia. Here is the list of the 10 best mountain towns in the Southeast it developed for Brian.

Asheville, NC. Often named the #1 place to retire in the U.S.

Boone, NC. A college town and outdoor recreation center.

Hendersonville, NC. Livable, with a cute and active downtown center.

Dahlonega, GA. This old gold mining town was a top pick for its charm and location on the Appalachian Trail.

Chattanooga, TN. Has a picturesque setting above the Tennessee River and friendly citizens.

Knoxville, TN. Home to the Vols (UT), it has college town appeal.

Winchester, VA. A great location atop the Shenandoah Valley and a wonderful 55+ community.

Roanoke, VA. The outdoor life is excellent with plenty of opportunities to get out and clear the head.

Morgantown, WV. Home to WVU, this college town also has Cheat Lake and plenty of mountains. □

Blue Ridge, GA. Lake Blue Ridge, the Toccoa River, the Blue Ridge Mountains, and the southern tip of the Appalachian Trail make this a special outdoor town.
